Update
May 2018

Dear Members

Things have been fairly quiet recently with Nllets – apart from the issues we've suffered with breakaway web systems and the sad loss of key members Woody Bronson, and also Helen Berenger, who used to hold the office together, as well as singing beautifully at our quarterly socials – the main problem, having had to move out of our office base in Waterlow Road, since we could no longer afford the rent, seems to be that we haven't figured out where to host our socials!

However, a number of members have been in touch wanting to re-join, and we have also been forming connections with a community centre near our former base in Archway, where we may be able to host future events. Rotating around different venues in North London also seems a very creative idea – so please reply with your suggestions, so that we can make plans for the summer months.

An excellent piece of good news is that Alan Newman has been in touch, having received an invite from the Workers Beer Company:

"Another busy season beckons with new and exciting events...."

"We are delighted to inform you that we will be working in partnership with the Labour Party at the recently announced Labour Live event, which will take place at White Hart Lane Recreation Ground on Saturday 16th June 2018."

"This is a brand new one-day festival of music, art and politics that brings together our incredible movement with a great line up of bands, speakers from across literature and politics, campaign training, food and drink, kids' entertainment – and hopefully a bit of sunshine too. Places for this event will be prioritised for CLPs and Labour led campaign groups but other organisations are welcome to apply."

OTHER AVAILABLE EVENTS are:

- Liam Gallagher, Queens of The Stone Age and The Community Festival – Friday 29th, Saturday 30th and Sunday 1st July 2018 – Finsbury Park, London.
- Lovebox/ Citadel, Friday 13th July, Saturday 14th July and Sunday 15th July 2018 – Gunnersby Park, London."

The way it works is that volunteers who are accepted for running the bar at an event get free entrance, and earn pledges for their time, and Nllets receives much-needed funds. If you would like to apply, contact Alan Newman "Nllets WBC Coordinator" using this form: <http://www.nllets.org.uk/members/uploads/NLLETs-WBC-Registration-Form-2018.doc>

Regarding re-activation of Nllets, there were so few members using the CES system (the green website), that we are considering re-adopting the Local Exchange System which is on the orange site with the cartoon. We are currently able to use this for communications, and if enough members on CES want to transfer back to it, we can also re-open it for pledge accounting. If you have any views on this please reply to: admin@nllets.org.uk
